Tour Description

Putra Mosque

Putrajaya - The new Federal Government Administration Center is sitting on 4591 hectares of land and located along the South Growth Corridor that houses the Multimedia Super Corridor (MSC). It is situated 25km from the capital city of Kuala Lumpur. A planned city that emphasizes on the preservation of its eco-culture and environment, Putrajaya will be developed as a modern, futuristic, intelligent and unique garden city. Compulsory to produce original passport for all foreign visitors to the PM's residence.

Dataran Putra

Cyberjaya - the Malaysia's first multimedia city, is located next to Putrajaya.

The Mines Resort City - It was once the world's largest open cast mine. But, gone are the miners and the machine, what you will see today is a 150-acre man-made lake. Surrounding the blue lake is a resort city comprises of business and entertainment parks, shopping center, world-class golf course and two hotels. Attractions from the amusement park include the popular Musical Fountain, which shows a dazzling display of waltzing waters with sound and light effects. Aqua Laser Show, Snow House, Lights Fantasy and a variety of amusement rides and games are not to be missed.

Perdana Putra Building
